

□

Create a C1 level English reading text with blank spaces for choosing vocabulary words. Make it 2 paragraphs and include the following vocabulary: absorb, adapt, barely, considerable, differ, fraction, heritage, hostile, likely, prosperous

The world is constantly changing, and it is up to us to _____ to these changes. Our ability to _____ to new situations is what sets us apart from other species. However, not everyone is able to do so. Some people are _____ able to make ends meet, while others are _____ and successful. This _____ in prosperity can be attributed to a _____ of factors, including one's upbringing and _____.

In addition to these factors, the environment in which we live can also play a role in our success. Some people are born into _____ environments, while others are born into _____ ones. Those who are born into hostile environments may have a harder time succeeding, but it is not impossible. With hard work and determination, anyone can _____ knowledge and skills that will help them succeed in life. It is important to remember that success is not just about money and material possessions, but also about personal growth and development.