

□

Create a Lesson plan for students in high school that are aimed to go to visit Auschwitz in one month and the Lesson plan will be made out of two lesson plans focusing on the final solution please create the Lesson plan engaging and in incorporating different activities it can be cards activities stimulating social activities talks processing and of course the academic side please provide also some links to videos that fit this age. The students had already learned about stereotypes anti-Semitism about the way the Nazi regime had built inside Germany about the propaganda they've already learned about the kindertransport the pyramid of hate already learned about dilemmas and about the camps and the first lesson about final solution was already made so we need to advance lessons about the final solution please provide links to videos that are not too hard for students aged middle and high school resources cards whatever can make the lesson engaging fun although the serious subject

Lesson Plan 1: Understanding the Final Solution

Objective: To understand the concept of the Final Solution and its impact on the Jewish community.

Materials:

- Whiteboard and markers
- Handouts on the Final Solution
- Video: "The Holocaust Explained" by History.com
- Cards with different scenarios related to the Final Solution

Introduction (10 minutes):

- Review what the students have learned so far about the Holocaust and the Nazi regime.
- Introduce the concept of the Final Solution and explain its significance in the Holocaust.
- Ask the students what they already know about the Final Solution.

Activity 1: Video (20 minutes):

- Show the video "The Holocaust Explained" by History.com.
- Pause the video at key points to ask the students questions and encourage discussion.

Activity 2: Cards (30 minutes):

- Divide the students into groups of 3-4.
- Give each group a set of cards with different scenarios related to the Final Solution.
- Ask the students to discuss each scenario and come up with a solution that would have helped the Jewish community during the Holocaust.
- After 15 minutes, have each group present their solutions to the class.

Conclusion (10 minutes):

- Recap what the students have learned about the Final Solution.
- Ask the students how they can apply what they have learned to their visit to Auschwitz.

Homework:

- Ask the students to research and write a short essay on the impact of the Final Solution on the Jewish community.

Lesson Plan 2: Remembering the Victims of the Final Solution

Objective: To understand the impact of the Final Solution on the Jewish community and to remember the victims.

Materials:

- Whiteboard and markers
- Handouts on the victims of the Final Solution
- Video: "The Last Days" by Steven Spielberg

- Art supplies (paper, markers, paint, etc.)

Introduction (10 minutes):

- Review what the students have learned about the Final Solution.
- Introduce the concept of remembering the victims of the Holocaust.
- Ask the students why it is important to remember the victims.

Activity 1: Handouts (20 minutes):

- Give each student a handout on the victims of the Final Solution.
- Ask the students to read the handout and choose one victim to research further.
- After 10 minutes, have each student share what they have learned about their chosen victim.

Activity 2: Video (30 minutes):

- Show the video "The Last Days" by Steven Spielberg.
- Pause the video at key points to ask the students questions and encourage discussion.

Activity 3: Art (30 minutes):

- Ask the students to create an art piece that represents their chosen victim.
- Encourage the students to be creative and use different art supplies.
- After 20 minutes, have each student present their art piece to the class.

Conclusion (10 minutes):

- Recap what the students have learned about the victims of the Final Solution.
- Ask the students how they can honor the victims during their visit to Auschwitz.

Homework:

- Ask the students to write a reflection on what they have learned about the victims of the Final Solution and how they can honor their memory.

Video links:

- "The Holocaust Explained" by History.com: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9bTKRkmwtGY>
- "The Last Days" by Steven Spielberg: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Jvzvz3QfJf4>