

create a task in which the student has to find the cultural differences of traveling abroad for the first time between a latino country and the usa

Task:

Your task is to explore the cultural differences of traveling abroad for the first time between a Latin American country and the United States. Research the primary cultural differences between the two countries in areas such as language, customs, food, clothing, values and etiquette. Utilize reliable sources such as travel websites, news articles, books and personal experiences of travelers to support your research. Once you have a thorough understanding of the differences between the two countries, create a report or presentation that outlines the top 10 cultural differences. Be sure to include pictures, quotes, and facts to make your report or presentation even more informative and impactful.
