

Create an example of a formal newspaper orientation that includes what the news paper article is about, when the article was written, who attended the event, why the event was held and where the event was held. The topic of the news report is new years eve celebrations at the burj khalifa in dubai.

This news report was written on the 31st of December, 2021 and centered on the spectacular event of New Year's Eve celebrations at the Burj Khalifa in Dubai. The event was attended by thousands of excited revelers from both the local and international community. The celebration was held to usher in the new year with joy and happiness, as well as to promote social cohesion and togetherness for all. The event was held at the iconic Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building, built to celebrate progress and innovation in the UAE.