

Create some questions with answers about the Eurovision Song Contest

Q: When was the first Eurovision Song Contest held?

A: The first Eurovision Song Contest was held in 1956 in Switzerland.

Q: How many countries have hosted the Eurovision Song Contest?

A: Since the first contest in 1956, up to 2021, a total of 52 countries have hosted the Eurovision Song Contest.

Q: What is the longest winning streak in the Eurovision Song Contest?

A: The longest Eurovision Song Contest winning streak belonged to Ireland, which won seven consecutive contests from 1992 to 1998.

Q: How many songs can a country submit to the Eurovision Song Contest?

A: A country may submit up to three songs to the Eurovision Song Contest.