

Design a Primary 5 scheme of work for business technology class. involve business intelligence, innovation, creativity, public speaking, communication

Week 1:

Topic: Introduction to Business Technology

Objective: To become familiar with the various types of business technology

- Introduce basic terms and concepts of the business environment and the types of technology used
- Overview of core technology systems used in business
- Overview of communication and collaboration tools

Activities:

- Read and discuss business technology in the classroom
- Introduce the use of video conferencing tools
- Practice public speaking and communication skills in the classroom
- Peer review presentations

Week 2:

Topic: Business Intelligence

Objective: Learn how to analyze business data and make decisions

- Introduction to business intelligence concepts
- Learn about data mining and big data
- Explore various business analytics tools

Activities:

- Conduct data analysis using business intelligence tools
- Learn about visualization techniques for data analysis
- Create presentations using business intelligence data

Week 3:

Topic: Innovation and Creativity

Objective: Understand how to apply creativity in problem solving

- Learn about different types of innovation
- Explore various methods for brainstorming new ideas
- Understand the importance of prototyping and testing new ideas

Activities:

- Brainstorm new ideas for business solutions
- Utilize creative problem solving methods
- Design a creative project with a business solution

Week 4:

Topic: Public Speaking and Communication

Objective: Develop public speaking and communication skills

- Understand the importance of effective communication in business
- Learn how to create effective presentations
- Practice public speaking skills in the classroom

Activities:

- Create and practice a presentation
- Analyze effective communication strategies
- Participate in a panel discussion

Week 5:

Topic: Putting It All Together

Objective: Leverage business technology to create new opportunities

- Understand the importance of collaboration and teamwork
- Learn how to utilize technology to improve efficiency and productivity
- Practice using various business technologies

Activities:

- Work in teams to construct a business solution
- Practice using different business technologies
- Develop a presentation using business technology
- Construct a business plan for a tech solution